

Announcing a global webinar
on

“My journey from creating Evil to now inspiring Heroism”

with legendary Professor

Philip G. Zimbardo, PhD

Since earning his PhD at Yale in 1959, Stanford Professor Emeritus Philip Zimbardo has become one of the most impactful psychologists of the 20th Century—teacher, researcher, author, activist, producer. In this PCUN Global Webinar, Dr. Zimbardo describes his bold and life-changing project: www.heroicimagination.org

Moderator: Harold Takooshian, PhD, Fordham

Welcome: Florence L. Denmark, PhD, UN Psychology Coalition

Introduction: Elaine Olaoye, PhD, UN Psychology Coalition

Discussants: Scott Plous, PhD, Wesleyan

Anjhula Mya Singh Bais, PhD, Amnesty International

16 March 2021, Tuesday at 4 pm PT (7 pm ET)

RSVP soon: www.eventbrite.com/e/philip-zimbardo-my-journey-from-evil-to-heroism-tickets-140084383161

All are welcome

 This global webinar is hosted in cooperation with PCUN, IMCES, Fordham Psi Chi, ATOP MeaningfulWorld, SPSSI-NY, Manhattan Psychological Assoc.

This is supported by an American Psychological Association CODAPAR mini-grant to 6 APA Divisions (10, 34, 42, 46, 48, 56). For any details: takoosh@aol.com

Notes: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BzRR3Mo4noU>

<http://digital.library.fordham.edu/cdm/ref/collection/psych/id/12>

