

SPSSI Action Teaching Grant Application Form

Action teaching is a high-impact style of instruction that promotes peace, social justice, and sustainable living at the same time that it educates students. To submit an action teaching grant proposal, please upload this form and any supporting materials through the SPSSI Action Teaching Grant Application Portal by April 15, 2020.

(1) Proposal title: _____

(2) Requested amount in U.S. dollars: $_____ (up to $1,500)

- (3) Type of project: Classroom activity
 Student assignment
 Field experience
 Web-based resource

(4) For students and other learners in (check all that apply):

- Graduate school College/university High school
 Grade school Work settings Other: _____

(5) Your full name (must be one person): _____

(6) Your position: Psychologist School teacher Graduate student
 Other: _____

(7) Your email/telephone: _____

(8) Your school or institution: _____

(9) Your postal address: _____

(10) Please attach:

- Your CV or résumé
- An abstract of 75-150 words summarizing the grant proposal
- A description of the project, including a statement of (a) what students will learn from the action teaching resource or activity developed with grant funding, (b) how the action teaching resource or activity will contribute to society or others beyond the class, (c) how you will assess student learning and broader impact, (d) why grant funding is needed to develop the action teaching resource or activity, and (e) a budget describing each item and rationale.

Note: Please limit the description to 6 double-spaced typed pages using 12-point font and 1-inch margins.